PENTECOST REFLECTION

"He will take what is mine, says Jesus and declare it to you. When we give thanks for the gift of the Holy Spirit, that verse should be very much at the heart of our thinking and our praying. The Holy Spirit is taking what belongs to Jesus, and not just declaring it – not just talking about it – but actually sharing it. It's very clear from those wonderful chapters in John's gospel, that what is going to happen when the Spirit comes is not just that we're going to hear a lot of interesting new ideas about God, but that somehow what belongs to Jesus – the glory that he had with the Father before the world began, as he says – that is going to become ours."

BIBLE STUDY RESUMES

The St. James Russell Knight Bible Study will return to live action this Friday, May 21, at 12:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. We will start a new study of Galatians. Join in at any time as the study is set up to make it easy to participate if you miss. Persons who have been vaccinated do not have to wear a mask. We hope you can take time out of your busy schedules for an hour of learning and reflection.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

The latest pictorial church directory is now available. Come by the church office to pick up one or obtain one from an usher after the 10:30 service on Sundays.

HEARTFELT THANK YOU

Received this week in the mail:

On September 1, 2020, I came to Lexington House as an evacuee from hurricane Laura. In December, your church delivered a Christmas bag filled with personal supplies and Christmas gifts.

This is a very belated thank you for your most welcome surprise. May God continue His blessings upon you.

I am returning to Lake Charles on Tuesday, May 11, as soon as our facility is complete.

Sincerely,
Linda Sue Banga
