From Fr. John

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

- By the time most of you read this, Donna, Taylor, and I will be in Douglasville, GA (outside Atlanta), where I will be officiating at the wedding of our oldest granddaughter. I will be out-of-pocket from Wednesday the 16th through Monday the 21st. If you need me, you can text me and I'll get back with you as soon as possible. If you need information, but it is not an emergency, please call Rita or Lisa at the office and leave me a message. I'll answer as I can.
- Last Sunday at 10:30, Lacey and Josh Brown spoke with the congregation about the stewardship of time and talent. During this annual stewardship campaign we often address the need for everyone to make a financial pledge to the church. It is from members' pledges that we build budgets. But Josh and Lacey spoke eloquently about how we use our time and talents, and how that is a huge part of our pledge to God and the church.
- If you have not yet used our streaming service to watch a service, you can do so here, or on our Facebook page. It is a way to stay connected when you cannot be physically present. But it's also a way to catch things that you missed – like Lacey and Josh's stewardship talk at announcement time.
- Our Stewardship Campaign ingathering will be Sunday, December 4, 2022. That is the day that we will take all of the pledge cards that have been turned in, and offer them to God at the same time that we offer our offerings, wine, and bread. Everything will be placed on the altar and God will bless it all to God's use, and ours.
 - If you have already turned in a pledge card, a big Thank You from your Wardens, Vestry, and me. If you have not yet turned in a card, please do so between now and the 4th of December. The budget process will begin soon and we cannot make an accurate budget until we have an accurate picture of what the 'income side,' looks like.

God's peace be with you all,
Fr. John+

It is with great sorrow that we let everyone know that Grace Gennuso, loving wife of Fr. George Gennuso, passed into the nearer presence of our Lord on November 13th. A memorial service will be scheduled after the Christmas holidays. We will update you with those details when they become known. Please keep Fr. George in your prayers during this time. May Grace rest in peace and rise in glory.
